Mornin Gra, how do you think Andy's hangover is? Was he having a celebration or a wake last night?

Bit if both mate. I remember seeing rich drive off in the old 2.4... Had a lump in my throat. That old banger took me all over the place.

I've never felt that way as I have always kept a car past its sell by date so the next one has always been an upgrade for me, or like buying the Surf a move to something different from your normal box on wheels. :D :D
