:D

How about we each make up a scenario that explains his current irritation ?

He was 'persuaded' by his boss to take on a limo job involving a collect and return well north of London with a bunch of MILF's on a hen night but it all went pear shaped due to their husbands getting to hear about some of the entertainment that was planned. Gra returns to base and there being no more jobs to do, goes home early only to discover that his boss is there 'entertaining' his wife ...

:whistle:

The truth.....

I had a central London pick up. It was from the Swedish blonde hospital for women with nymphomania. They were going for one last jolly before having their woo woos sewn up and padlocks fitted. About an hour into the hire, they asked me to stop and get in the back to see if I could turn the heating up...and they attacked. I was being molested and I said to my attacker

"I'll give you 20 minutes to stop that"...
