Hmmm - not quite, alcohol induced ...

Yesterday I heard that an old Gunner friend of mine had died so I had a drink in his memory and then I had another - the result is two badly damaged bottles of scotch and an unseasonally festive state of mind !

Live every day like it's your last cos one day it will be :devil:

RIP Stuart Cheseldine Royal Artillery - UBIQUE !

I'm sure I have seen bob tonight in Shepperton.

There he was in his red Christmas Jumper and tinsel covered red bobble hat taking pictures of the Christmas lights in the town :lol:

It has to be Bob, who else would be daft enough to dress like that ?
