Why is it that feckwit commentators have to tell the viewer about the glorious sounds of some V8's running flat out or the wail of a supercharger then carry on talking over it. :mad: the next-door neighbors must have wondered what was going on when I bellowed SHUT THE F.U.C.K. UP YOU TWAT at the tv as he first described the sound then proceeded to talk over them.
AAAAAAAAAAGH!!!!!! :sissyfit: :sissyfit:

oh my Brummie, calm down, calm down, perhaps I have an antidote...

How near are you to this address?

WALSALL MOTORS LTD
UNIT 2 WOODWARDS RD
Walsall
West Midlands
WS2 9SL

It has a v8 tale attached, I don't mean a tree rat tail

15 or so miles using the M6, about 30 mins this time of night or feck knows during the day. It would have to be around an hour though with Spaghetti junction and the roadworks up to the M5. :/

I see, i was wondering if you might be able to look at something for me? They are selling a Mercedes SEC 560 which looks rather interesting. Might that be possible in the new year as I can't see it selling over Christmas.

Just looked at it, prepare for a motor that can drink faster than Bio !

Still at least you are avoiding a model from between 1992 - 1996 when Mercedes used biodegradable wiring !

it looks wonderful, if it is a 1 owner that also helps.

Key challenges are the rear window, if delaminated it can cost £1300 for a new one, the window seals fail allowing water onto the parcel shelf and it can rust and the boot will smell musty. Rust will eventually get there on the sills and the wings but that's fixable.

I just love the drug dealer look, black, decent AMG rims and 300bhp

It looks good in the pictures, I hope it is in real life.

There are 3 others on fleabay at present, 1 is highly priced and LHD, the other 2 look worse for wear, especially the red one !

Good luck

Red and mercedes don't usually do it for me, I think the car needs a dark colour, black, blue or a dark grey, essex white sucks.

We shall see if the good and benevolent Brummie is able to wander across, if it is a bag of nails the items I mentioned will be the killer items

Did you see this on their home page?

Opening times

Monday Appointment Only

Tuesday Appointment Only

Wednesday Appointment Only

Thursday Appointment Only

Friday Appointment Only

Saturday Appointment Only

Sunday Appointment Only

Whenever I see that on at dealers I give them a miss. It gives them a chance to tart the thing up so it's nice and warm and starts first time etc for when you get there. I'd rather listen to it starting from cold :whistle:

Could always be mean and make an appointment to see a different car, then when there change your mind on which car you want to see :devilish:

Point taken, had not noticed the "lack of opening times "

After Christmas then

Was not joking oh purveyor of vin plonk, the road and pavements have just been resurfaced and are great, the dropped kerbs though are a half arsed addition afterwards, they don't look like they will last as long as a bottle of pickled eggs at Bio's !

Clearly Santa delivered a big fat hangover for you :lol: [searches for drum kit and box of chinese crackers] :devilish:

You mean he followed through ?

Well that would explain his absence !

when he reads this he will be unleashing a full charge on us, better make sure you know where the :gasmask: store is :lol:
